

Unvaccinated Children Policy

We understand that parents may consciously choose not to vaccinate their child. Our policy is that the Daycare will not be held responsible for any communicable disease that any unvaccinated child may catch and any complications that might arise from a child not being vaccinated.